This Book in 'any' format is FREE to give away
And everyone should be encouraged to do so.

This book, in no matter 'what' format,
must NEVER be edited.

When you read this book.
Please read it with an open mind.

Am I just joking?

Am I being the Devil's Advocate?

Am I throwing you 'dummies' so that you recognise the truth?

I don't mind what you 'think' as you read this book.
The important thing is that you DO think.

The human mind has an amazing ability to sift through Bull - **** and identify the truth. Your sub-conscious mind will tell you at the end of this book exactly what IS the truth, and what is not.

The Fact Is;

The Human Race is on a precipice.

We are all just teetering on the edge of our own destiny.

If we DO NOT do something this very moment, we will go 'over' that edge and fall to our demise like lemmings.

This is not some uncontrollable fate.

Not something that's written in the stars for us so that it can't be avoided.

This is a 'controlled' manipulation of the Human Race by;

'The Few'

Who, as you are reading these words, are 'usurping' what very little liberty you have left, and using it to control your every thought and every movement.

The fact that you are even considering 'doubting' that truth right now, must show you that the process has 'already started' and that you are a victim of the very doctrine that will control you, your children, and ALL future generations of the human species to come.

As a race, we humans have compassion and empathy. We feel the POWER of LOVE and will 'kill' another to protect those we love most. But we are all just sleep-walking through our journey of life on this planet in total oblivion to what is REALLY happening, and how those who YOU LOVE the most in this world are being drawn into a destiny that you wouldn't want to see in your worst nightmare. Let alone wish on your nearest and dearest.

But because you are being conditioned on and hourly basis, 24/7 for 'all' of your life, the reality is hidden from you 'by' your own sub-conscious mind which is acting in total compliance with that 'professional' conditioning.

Now, before we go any further down this road, I need you to open your mind to the possibility that WHAT I am telling you 'could' be 100% the truth.

I'm hoping to use the very 'tool' that is being used to lead you down this path into oblivion to actually AWAKEN you to the very real dangers we all face.

Secret Agent; TV4U

The TV. Yes, sorry folks, but that box in the corner of your room is being used to 'control' your every thought, emotion and action.

(It also gives people like me a few weapons to use 'against' it.)

Like 'the gun'. The majority of us would use a gun for protection or for sport. But there ARE those who would use it to KILL another human without remorse.

To most of us, the TV is a valuable source of entertainment and provider of knowledge.

But there ARE those who would use it to 'control' us and deprive us of our valuable 'FREEDOMS'. (Hopefully I can 'turn' their weapon on themselves here)

The Number ONE weapon being used in today's modern world is the News Media. Controlled by very 'few' people with immense power. The power to summon the Western World's Leaders to come to 'them' WHEN they snap their fingers so that they can dictate the forthcoming agenda to them.

When the press report political plans and ideas in the news. It's not News, it's 'instruction' to the waiting press exactly 'what' to write. Government press officers 'tell' the press what to write, and they scurry off like primary school children and write it as if it's privileged information just for them. They rarely question it because they're not intelligent enough to do so. Most of the press are just that; 'The Messengers'.

The carriers of messages designed to convince you and I of whatever the subliminal programming message of the day is.

Have you ever read a report in the press on an event or subject that you have personal experience or knowledge about?

Was the report correct?

Were dates, times, or data correct?

I'll bet that your answers will be a resounding NO!

They don't get the small things right, and they seldom get the BIG issues right.

They are like solicitors and barristers. They are 'professional' liars. The two trades are based on deceit. They lie because they are PAID to lie.

It's no coincidence that governments the world over have an overwhelming majority of members from the legal profession in their ranks.

They have learned the craft of lying convincingly and without remorse. Just the right training for a political life where the ability to 'manipulate' the public is an absolute MUST.

Controlling our minds, and therefore our actions, is essential to achieving the 'end goal' that is determined by 'The Few'.

Whatever part of the world you live in, if you have a TV then I've no doubt that you've watched Magic or Illusionist shows.

People like David Blaine and Derren Brown automatically spring to mind. If you've somehow NOT heard of these two people, you should 'Google' their names and be sure to see some of their work.

The reason I mention these two in particular is because they show us 'Very Clearly' how the human mind can be 'tricked' into believing that even the most ridiculous things suggested to us can be totally believed. Even though we 'know' differently as onlookers, the 'subject' or 'patsy' of this deception is 'totally' convinced.

They both go on to tell us quite categorically that they are NOT dealing in magic. That they have 'no powers' which are any different to the rest of us. But what we see them doing, completely blows our minds, because what we see, is something that is 'impossible' to comprehend in the realm of existence that 'we' experience as 'LIFE'.

David Blaine can be seen pushing his hand through a plate glass shop-front window and taking out a ring from a display cabinet without damaging the glass in any way. HOW? (He confesses he's NO magician. It's all an ILLUSION).

He can also be seen to 'levitate' quite literally before our very eyes. Grown men and women 'crying' because they know that what they are seeing is totally 'impossible' in our own realm of 'comprehension'.

An American football team filled with big HUNKS of men ran away screaming like girls because 'what' they saw was IMPOSSIBLE. (All an ILLUSION)

Derren Brown has also shown us similar feats, and one other thing he did, to show us that we are all much the same as each other, and are all susceptible to 'manipulation', was when he got a group of people in a room from different age groups and walks of life. He told them that he could 'read' their personality from just holding something of theirs that they hold dear to themselves. They all gave him things like rings, lucky talismans, mobile phones etc, etc.

They put these personal belongings into large brown envelopes and wrote their name in bold felt-tip on the outside of their own.

Derren left the room for several hours and let them all have a good old chat together while 'he' was doing their 'readings' for them and getting them typed up.

He eventually came back into the room and put all of the envelopes down on the table. He asked them all to take their own envelope, to go off to a quiet part of the large room and read the contents to themselves.

They were 'not' to discuss those contents with any other person in the room. He then called them back to the centre and asked each one to 'rate' his reading of their personality.

There were about 12 or 14 people as I remember, and almost everyone gave him at least nine out of ten for accuracy. They were literally 'gushing' about how precise he was with details he couldn't 'possibly' have known about them before. There were just two who gave him a seven out of ten, but agreed he was 'pretty accurate'.

He then told them to exchange their envelopes with each other and to go off to their 'quiet part' of the room to read what he had written about THEM. Very soon they all started to exchange again with each other un-prompted and with a quizzical look on their faces. This repeated itself a couple of times before Derren stepped in to ask them 'what' was the matter?

They all said that they kept getting their OWN readings back.

With this, Derren smiled and confessed. He'd not left the room to write their readings at all. The readings had been prepared 'weeks' before he even knew 'who' he would be doing the experiment with. He went on to say that the human race ALL have the very same traits. We 'all' have the same dreams and emotions. That we 'all' act almost identically 'inside' under pressure. But most importantly of all. That we are ALL susceptible to manipulation by ANYONE who knows how to press those emotional buttons that we ALL have.

Another example is when we watch wildlife shows on the TV. Have you ever marvelled at the spectacle of a shoal of fish as it acts as 'one'. All turning and swirling as 'one entity', acting as if controlled by 'one' mind?

Or the flock of birds as they swirl in unison over our skies? Surely they MUST be telepathically linked mustn't they? How do they all know the 'exact' moment to change direction when there are sometimes 'thousands' in a flock, or shoal?

OK, you know what I mean there, but they are birds and fish, they're not human beings. Humans have 'Free Choice'. WE decide what we do, where we go, what we say, what we think. – Don't we?

Sorry to disappoint you here, but good old TV comes to my rescue again. See if you can summon up old or new newsreels on the inter-net of 'Aerial Footage' of mass demonstrations. Watch how the crowd reacts to just ONE person, or just ONE very small group of people. They TOO act like the 'shoals' of fish or the 'flock' of birds. You'll see them all 'swirling' in motion. Keeping in perfect synchronisation with others who are possibly hundreds of yards away.

This is fact! Something you can find and 'prove' to yourself. Not just something that I'm making up to express a point of my own.

Still not convinced? Watch any football match. Hear them all start singing in unison, word-perfect. Hear them come out with 'random' chants. All at the same time. It's uncanny when you realise how unnatural this 'should' be but how 'normal' it actually is.

We all like to think that we're different. We like to think our thoughts are unique to us. Nobody could think or feel the same as we do as individuals.

Could they?

Get a group of individuals from all walks of life and put them together in a large hall. It's a pretty good bet that you'd have a fair idea who was rich, poor, badly educated, intelligent, confident etc, etc. Your opinion, even though probably WRONG, would be based on the way they dress, and their posture. The way they make eye contact or not. Even the symmetry of their facial features would help you form an opinion in the first few seconds of meeting them.

Now put the same group into the hall. Only this time they're all naked, sitting cross-legged on the floor, looking down. No-one making eye contact. Try and form an opinion now and you'd be 'flummoxed'. You wouldn't have a clue.

They are now just a crowd of human flesh. No more, no less.

It's only the way we dress, hold ourselves and exude confidence or not, that helps people form opinions of us. Take any good actor. Are they 'better' than the rest of us, or worse? NO, they're exactly the same. Jack Nicholson for example. He can play a tramp, a psycho, a smooth talking lover-boy, or a president. It doesn't matter to him as he can be whoever he wants to be. He's learned the craft of 'acting' and all of us will believe he IS who-ever he portrays.

We all 'act' everyday of our lives. Every one of us is trying to impress somebody. No Exceptions.

Job interviews, we act. Business presentations, we act. Out having fun on the town, we act. We act according to the 'impression' we're trying to portray of ourselves.

I know.... You're different..... You're cool.... You've got life sussed and you don't give a **** what anybody else thinks of you.

C***! We're all the same I'm afraid.

We all have the same hopes, dreams and ambitions as each other.

We all need to feel 'loved' by those that WE love.

LOVE is the power that drives us, and if we don't get it, we decay from the inside out. FACT!

The Power Of LOVE.

As babies we 'crave' love, and babies will do almost anything to make sure they get it.

Nothing there changes no matter how old we get.

So what has this got to do with our minds, and mind control?

'The Few' know that we're all the same psychologically. (Bar a very small percentage of us). They know the 'triggers' that set off our emotions. Whether that be aggression, humour, romance or subservience. There are 'trigger' words and phrases that control the vast majority of the World population.

There's nothing we can do about it, so if you're of the majority, (as you very likely are), you will believe what you hear on the news and in the daily papers. You'll believe that the many wars are 'necessary' for our own protection. That the restrictive laws that are passed every day to curtail our liberties are done to 'protect' us from those 'Bad Guys' out there.

(Yes, sometimes the 'Bad Guys' are real, I know. But more often they're not).

If we are threatened in any way of 'losing' a source of 'love', we will normally do 'anything' to be able to protect and keep it.
(No exceptions for the majority of us).

Depending on the 'source' of love that is being threatened, we will act in different ways.

Sometimes it's 'aggression', stoked by an outside threat to your environment or homeland. (Your Roots). Which is useful to get you to 'want' to go to war.

Sometimes it's 'subservience' if your home life is threatened in any way you will 'conform' if that's what will remove the threat soonest.

“Saddam Hussain has weapons of mass destruction that he can launch within four minutes that will obliterate us all. He HAS to be stopped”.

Now that must be true. Our governments have said so, and the media are backing it up. How can it not be true? “Let's go get him”.

“You are under constant threat in your homes by ruthless burglars who will rape and kill your wife and children”. “Your car is likely to be stolen or attacked by vandals”. “Your child is very likely to be snatched in the street and sold to the human traffickers”.

All are possibilities. And they always have been. But NOW the governments want 'Big Brother' to play a more important role in our lives.

We 'need' monitoring 24/7 'for our own protection', so we obviously NEED CCTV cameras on every corner, and microchips in our arms.

Especially the children in case they get 'kidnapped'. Hmmmmm???

The UK is obviously the 1st 'trial ground' for these 'Big Brother' tactics. With more CCTV cameras per head than ANYWHERE else in the World.

Now, whether you like it or not, you are being 'frightened' first into thinking your sources of 'LOVE' are being threatened. Then, they throw the 'solution' to the problem at you. As you can't abide to 'lose' your sources of 'LOVE' you will act exactly how 'The Few' want you to act.

These tactics are being deployed World-wide 'as' you're reading this book.

The human race as a whole will follow the course mapped out for them. If they don't, they fear they will 'lose' their sources of love.

The very energy that all humans totally depend upon.

'The Few' only need to implant the 'fear' into the minds of a minority for it to be transmitted to the 'majority' through telepathic means that we 'all' have as human beings. (Remember the swirling crowds?) We DO have telepathic powers, especially between those we love or are close to.

We can all be controlled by 'suggestion'. David Blaine and Derren Brown prove it to us time and time again. Surely we can't ALL be so blind that we CANNOT SEE what's going on?

We've all heard the statement that "God Is Love" right?

Whether you believe that to be true is neither here nor there. But it's essential that you accept it as a 'possibility'.

If God is love, and God created all that we see and experience every second of our existence, then 'love' must be the ONE thing you will need to control if you are looking to influence the actions of the 'Masses'.

Kidnappers, hi-jackers, muggers all prey on our fear of 'losing' our sources of 'love'.

This energy that we can't see, touch, hear or smell. But we know it's there. We know we 'have' to have it, and we 'have' to give it, or we disintegrate back to dust.

Every great power that has ever existed in the past has used that 'abstract energy' to drive forward their goals and desires. The most recent 'great' driving force that most people will instantly recognise has to be Hitler.

An Evil man to most of us. But to his dedicated countrymen who obeyed his every word and thought, he was their 'protector'. Their saviour from a world that was supposedly 'going bad' for the German Motherland. Hitler. Just one otherwise insignificant man realised that 'The Power Of Love' could move mountains. His passion and belief in his own truth drove him forward to exploit that power to the enth degree, that wreaked destruction all over the world.

Even more recently, most will remember Bob Geldof, the co-producer with Midge Ure of the first 'Live-Aid' concert. Was that founded on the 'Power Of Love'? You bet it was.

Just a year or so earlier, Bob Geldof starred in the film 'The Wall'. An adaptation of Pink Floyd's concept album of the same name. In it, he played a 'hitleresque' character who commanded obedience from the masses using exactly the same techniques.

I've no doubt that Bob had his Eureka! Moment while filming those scenes. He'd been taught 'subliminally' exactly HOW to get people from all nations to 'follow' his lead. With one eye on his failing career, and the other on his heart strings that were being pulled by the starving Ethiopians, he set about 'using' that AWESOME power to generate millions of pounds/dollars etc in aid for the starving millions.

Who could ever forget that day?

The sun shone beautifully 'against' the odds ALL DAY while bands played their music to the World and Cosmos alike.

Bob ranted and raved, and got us 'all' to delve DEEP into our pockets and purses as he made all of us cry real tears of 'LOVE' as we watched those innocent helpless lives drift in and out of consciousness.

That could be us. Our children. Our loved ones being tortured by starvation, and the Sun's unforgiving HEAT. We were compelled to help, and we did. In our millions.

Bob raised our awareness of the injustices around our world that day, but MORE importantly, he unwittingly 'proved' that the 'Power Of Love' was a 'tangible' power. We could 'feel' it at last. It wasn't a dream after all.

LOVE was now 'not' something we 'thought' was there, somewhere in the ether or our hearts. Now Bob had stumbled on the PROOF that it existed and that it was more powerful than anything else in our universe.

Are You Ready For Some Proof?

Light Across The Universe.

It was a long, hot summers day,
when we all stood and shone the way.
We took our power from the sun,
and shared it out with everyone.

As we stood in awe through a veil of tears,
we gave light to the world for future years.
We showed that love was a power within.
If we use it right, we'll always win.

As we witnessed love with our own minds.
Did YOU feel a strong force rise ?
Through the shoulders, up the neck, between the ears and eyes?

I know you've felt it many times.
It's the reason for our being.
We generate this energy,
and seeing is believing.

It only comes with true love,
and it can be mistaken,
for the love of lust,
and this my friend,
is the course that can't be taken.

To get back to that magic day,
when all the groups came out to play.
A light shone through this universe,
as we put our hands
into life's purse.

The light so bright, we couldn't see.
But it helped to forge our destiny.
It showed the Black Queen we're not beat.
We won't accept her tasty treat.

All she could do was stand and stare.
She didn't have an answer there.
Our love of life she couldn't handle.
We have to keep alight that candle..

If John were here, you'd hear him say,
"We must relive that special day.
You have the chord.
You have the words.
You have the love of millions.
So go and show the Black Queen,
you won't settle for oblivion".

When all the world has witnessed the power for themselves.
They can't deny this force of love, that we first take from heaven above.

They can't deny we give it back, to help our love grow stronger.
The Black Queen now looks down on us, beside herself with anger.

She cannot live on love you see,
and love will forge her destiny.
She'll starve herself to death, and then.
Fall into the world of her Black King.

P. Moring.

(Excerpt from 'Visions Of The Future Past')

(FP Publishing © 1988)

If we take one lesson from 'Live Aid' it should be that the human race 'proved' to itself that day how 'The Power Of Love' is all-conquering and can be utilised in the fight for 'good' in this world, and as much as it's 'abused' by 'The Few' to control us and to start wars of destruction to meet their own criteria. The very fact that we can IDENTIFY the TRUE power of love as described in the poem above, means that we can also IDENTIFY the 'phoney' power of love when it is used 'negatively' against us by 'The Few'.

Those of you reading this book have no excuse now to believe the lies being issued to you day-in, day-out. You can now 'identify' the phoney statements issued to you constantly via the media.

But if you want to be right at the very TOP of your game in identifying 'The Phoneys', you need to read 'Visions Of The Future Past' as often as you can.

Your power of perception will increase with each reading. (I Promise).

Telepathy?

YES! Yet another gift for You and Me from the TV in the corner. The device used by 'The Few' to control our every thought and action is used against 'themselves' here.

A recent documentary exposing the undoubted fact that 'identical triplets' are 'linked' mentally and emotionally like nothing we should be able to comprehend. Without going into too much detail here, I will relay just 'one' of the experiments.

They have their three grown lads who do everything together, (even perform in their own band as a single unit), and they link each one up to separate laptops loaded with software that reads their brain activity by transferring brain signals through a special cap that they each wear, and that's wired up to the laptop.

Tests are done to show that each laptop is taking 'individual readings' from each of the lads successfully. So two of them are led into one room, the other is led to a room right at the other end of the building on his own, to be 'tested'. All are wired up independently and their brain activity is being recorded.

The lad who was led off on his own was given the 'shock' game to play. It's a game that tests your reactions, and if you don't react fast enough, you get quite a severe electric 'shock'.

After a few of these shocks, data from the three laptops were examined in front of the three triplets together. Neither would admit that they believed they were telepathic and both of the lads who weren't given the shock agreed that they felt no pain or discomfort at all.

But when the data was revealed to them in 'real time', as it happened. It showed that all three had abnormal brain patterns that were identical, at exactly the same time as the 'single lad' was being 'shocked'.

Yes, they too gasped in amazement, but couldn't deny that telepathy WAS at work deep inside their sub-conscious minds.

Before I continue, are we as one with the fact that we CAN all be manipulated by forces that 'The Few' have complete control over?

Over the centuries, mankind has been held in check, or governed by 'fear'.

If we don't obey certain rules, then there are 'consequences'. Nothing too wrong with that ideal, it's called 'civilization'. Where we are all encouraged to behave morally and ethically towards one another. Something every one of us should strive to do. We can't have killing, raping and pillaging going on all over the place. That's what most of us would call a 'living hell', so civilization was one of the better ideals gifted to us by 'The Few'.

They do give us 'sweeteners' from time to time, but their 'focus' is always there. The end game is total control of this planet and the human race as a whole.

We are required to become 'drones'. Worker beings for the greater good of 'The Few' who wish to use the combined 'energy' that the human race produces for their own ends. Our minds will not be our own. 'Free will' is being diminished by the hour with more and more 'petty' rules and regulations World-wide (with consequences) being used to grind down our resistance.

We are accepting these rules by the thousands because we are being 'told' by 'The Few' that run our 'media', that we MUST have them to protect us from the bad guys. (In the main, imaginary bad-guys) Dreamed up in our imagination by the 'programmes' we watch. The 'video games we play. The 'blockbuster films' that we see. The list goes on with 'advertising hoardings' and 'sponsorships' all playing their part in 'The Big Game'.

Tell me you're not influenced by all of these things?

Go on, I DARE YOU.

Of course you are, that's why they're there. They are our 'Sweeteners'. Our 'Gifts' from 'The Few' to keep us happy and entertained while 'THEY' get on with their real agenda.

Are you a parent? Have you ever sat your child down with a load of toys, or in these days of the early 21st century, in-front of the TV or a computer game, maybe a child's video? You've asked your child to just sit there and play while YOU get on with the 'important' things in 'Your' life. That may be housework, it may be studying, or may just be time out to have a chat with a friend. It could be anything you like. But you 'cannot focus' your whole existence on your child or children. You DO have to give your child 'sweeteners' to allow yourself time for the important 'other things' in your life.

'The Few' give us sweeteners for the same reason. To keep our minds occupied while 'they' get on with their 'more important stuff'. They 'use' those very sweeteners to 'help' them in their quest to impose total control over us all 'en-mass'.

THE INTERNET.

Possibly THE most important development since 'civilization' began. Everyone can speak to 'anyone' they like, about 'anything' they like, in any part of the World. Absolutely fantastic!

FREE SPEECH is now a reality.

The 'Internet' though I'm afraid, is just another 'sweetener' to get you hooked on the idea that you are being 'given' unlimited freedom of speech. After all, you can set up numerous websites and blogs. You can E-mail millions of people with a click of your mouse. This HAS to be ultimate freedom doesn't it?

Surely if there were some 'secret force' at work trying to deny us our freedoms, they would never allow us so much FREE access with each other.

WOULD THEY?????

Of course they would. 'The Few' need you to open up your soul into your 'virtual memory' which is the PC you type it all into.

They want you to express yourself, your dreams and your desires to 'the ether' that is the internet.

WHY? ... Because 'The Few' have had the technology for years that stores and records EVERY phone call that has ever been made by you and me. Every E-mail that's ever been transmitted by 'any' computer or phone in the World.

WHY?? ... Because it also has the software in place that picks out 'keywords' in phone calls, blog posts and E-mails which will activate warning signals to be placed on that transmission for possible further inspection. Also, to 'categorise' every person so that they can be monitored if necessary when their plan for world domination becomes complete.

Have you noticed lately, (This is being written in late 2008) how our 'freedoms' on the inter-net are being slowly limited? SPAM laws supposedly designed to 'protect' us, are in fact a way of getting everybody to give all of their vital information away with EVERY E-mail they ever send out. If you don't comply with this order you are in very real danger of prosecution, which means 'fines' and possibly having your internet access limited or removed completely. (Consequences).

Everyone and their auntie has been 'suckered' into believing this is being done for our own good, to protect us from 'the bad guys' again.

Those people who persistently send us the dreaded 'SPAM' that we all hate so much, and the viruses that destroy our computers.

I have to admit, I hate spammers that fill my in-box with so much rubbish that I have trouble finding the genuine E-mails. But have you noticed that even though we law-abiding citizens of the world are complying with the orders relayed to us from above, (to the letter), that the 'spammers' are pushing out even MORE of the dreaded stuff?

How are they able to get away with it?

Weren't we all TOLD of the severe 'consequences'?

(I'm sure you don't need me to explain further).

It's about 'control' of our minds. About conditioning us ALL into thinking that WE are being 'protected' from the bad guys, but only if we comply with every new 'protection' law unchallenged.

(Under threat of 'consequences' don't forget).

Gradually, new threats to our 'on-line' experience will be exposed, and more 'restrictions' will follow for 'Our Own Protection'. The inter-net will not be the 'information highway' that we all know and love at present. It will become that 'dark alley' where the 'Bad-Guys' lurk, waiting to pounce on you and slap you in the face with yet another 'consequence' because you 'dared' to speak out of line.

A keyword you entered quite innocently has been 'filtered' into the 'suspected anarchist' file, or some other suspect file that allows the 'Jack-Boot-Warriors' to come and stamp all over you at will. After all, you've dared to express an opinion or a random Free Thought. You must expect to take 'the consequences' for the GOOD of all other inter-net users worldwide.

Mark what I'm saying here, and remember it well.

In the past, I've made reference to the 'thought police' in blog posts. In comments on other peoples blog posts, and in forums. Only to be ridiculed and called a 'nutter' (to put it mildly). Already, in the UK, people are having their computer equipment 'seized' and confiscated because they 'dared' to talk about 'Muslims'.

An amateur radio enthusiast had all of his equipment worth thousands of pounds, which he had spent years adding to, because he loved to sit in his room and speak to 'The World'. One day, he mentioned 'Muslims' in a conversation with another 'radio-ham' as they're called. Someone listening in, heard the conversation around the Muslim faith and reported it.

A short time later, all that time and money spent by this gentleman (of otherwise good character), building up his own amateur radio transmission station (which is perfectly legal and above board) was washed down the pan.

The government sponsored 'Jack-Boot-warriors' came along, and without proper explanation, ripped it all out and confiscated it.

We in the UK are constantly being reminded just how lucky we are that the government 'always' has our best interests at heart.

That they will move mountains to 'protect' us from these 'Bad-Guys' that threaten those freedoms.

YES! People like the lonely radio ham who 'dared' to have an opinion about the Muslim faith.

Were he to have had an opinion about the Christian, Jewish or Bhuddist faith, he could have kept his equipment and nothing would have been said.

(You draw your own conclusions here.)

Freedom Of Speech??

David Icke, (if you don't know him, Google him NOW!) went along to a well-known spot in the centre of London in the UK to interview a chap who has been protesting there for some years now about 'The Big Brother State' and all of it's ramifications. He took his partner and his trusty camcorder along to record the event. Within 'minutes' he was encircled by our 'aggressive' police officers, (who were obviously only doing so to 'protect us' from this 'Bad-Guy') and told to turn off the camcorder and move on or he would be arrested, and his camcorder confiscated. (Don't we have our FREEDOM still in the UK?)

This is fact, and was shown in a UK TV documentary in 2007.

'David Icke, Was He Right?' (Click here)

The recording was placed on 'YouTube' at the time. As this book is being written, it is still on that channel and can still be viewed. (August 2008) Just enter the keywords David Icke and you'll hopefully still be able to view some very important information.

David Icke is without doubt one of the bravest men you will ever come across. He's pent his life (over the last 20 years) researching 'The Big Brother' state influence worldwide. But as he states himself. Big Brother is only a very small part in the 'Agenda' of 'The Few'.

He has written countless books warning us all of 'the consequences' of 'ignorance' and 'Non-Action', which translated means 'Total Compliance' to the wishes of 'The Few'.

(Arthritic hands are now his reward)

He has been ridiculed mercilessly by the Media and the Public alike.

His Children have been ridiculed in the same way by people who "Know not what they do". (To pinch a well known quote there).

His marriage faltered under the strain, but 'still' he pursued the TRUTH for the benefit of YOU! and I.

20 Years of digging for, and exposing the truth is now coming to fruition.

He is now taken VERY seriously by those in high places, who realise that they have 'Been Rumbled'.

He speaks at 'Sold-Out' conventions worldwide to an inquisitive public who are 'starving hungry' for the TRUTH.

He can now walk amongst ALL of us with his head held high, because the very things he was writing about 20 years ago. Where he was trying his hardest to get us all to take him seriously and just 'LISTEN' to what he had to say, are now happening at an alarming rate. People are now reading those books written 'before' events had unfolded, and can see that the man was RIGHT! He DID know what he was talking about, and we are all now suffering because we treated him like a fool.

His children have the satisfaction of saying that they are 'PROUD' to be his children. Not ashamed, as the governments and the public would have preferred.

Who else among us could 'boast' that one with undoubted confidence?

The doubters among you will be saying that if he's such a threat to this all-seeing 'negative' power, 'The Few', how come he's still alive? How come he hasn't been 'taken out' by now for 'our' own good?

It serves 'The Few' to have people like David Icke exposing their schemes so that they can use their 'superior might' of the worlds media to show what a madman he is. After all, he apparently believes with every sinew of his body that 'The Few' are actually 'Shape-Shifter' reptilians who have taken on the human form so that they can walk among us undetected.

I mean, someone who believes 'that' load of old codswallop 'must' be stark raving mad, SURELY???

That is why David Icke still walks the planet. Because he is portrayed as the ultimate 'Nutter', so how can 'any' of his claims be true?

Whether 'The Few' are reptilians or not, I don't know. All I do know is that everything David Icke says about 'The Few', he has backed up with the most comprehensive research that would make most of our minds 'boggle'.

Luckily, we don't have to do it. It's been done for us by David Icke and his team. All we have to do is to 'verify' it for our own peace of mind.

I could put links in here for you to follow, but there is so much work on the internet, and in the public domain worldwide that you need only enter 'David Icke' into any search engine to come up with all of the videos, interviews and writings that will blow your mind with their profound sincerity.

In The Beginning

In the beginning. Before 'matter' formed within infinite space creating the Cosmos that we know today, there were only 'negatively' charged electrons forming the state we call 'oblivion'.

A place where there is no light, no sound, no smell, no touch, no feelings or emotions. Total oblivion.

In the beginning,

these 'negatively' charged electrons needed a 'positive' charge to bounce off of. To rub against and cause 'duplication' of the 'Negative' electron.

In the beginning,

that charge was the 'positive' energy we call 'imagination'.

The very thing that has created ALL we see around us in our HUMAN world.

Nothing could have been built or created by we humans without the POWER of 'imagination'. If we can 'imagine' something, it can be done. But ONLY with the harnessed power of 'imagination'.

In the beginning,

time was irrelevant. There was no need for 'time' as we know it because there was nothing to measure. No future, no past, no present. Just 'Oblivion'...

BUT!.....

In the beginning,

the electron that was 'positively' charged with 'imagination' was busily doing exactly what 'imagination' does best. 'Imagining', (surprise, surprise).

Imagining beautiful images in the likeness of itself. Spherical in form with an order about them that would make them duplicatable into infinity.

In the beginning,

'Time' was now beginning to form in the imagination of the lonesome electron. it had all the plans imagined, but no way of forming and duplicating them. There was no 'time frame'. For this, it needed to imagine mathematical equations to form 'TIME' itself, and this it duly did.

In the beginning,

the lonesome 'positively' charged electron had imagined trillions upon trillions of images, but had no way to make them real. It was stuck in oblivion with no means of forming all of those images 'outside' of the prison it found itself within.....THEN!.....

In the beginning,

the lonesome 'positive' charge filled with 'imagination' imagined the most POWERFUL tool it had ever been able to imagine before.

It imagined 'vibration'.

OK, all very well imagining 'vibration' but how will that 'create' all of the images that need to be formed to escape from 'oblivion'?

In the beginning,

the lonesome 'positive' charge imagined 'MUSIC!'

It imagined all the various 'vibrations' coming together in a 'mathematical' sequence thus causing a 'chord' to form. Imagining the chord caused the lonesome 'positively' charged electron to 'vibrate' itself....UNTIL!...

In the beginning,

the lonesome 'positively' charged electron 'vibrated' so much to 'the rhythm of the beat' that it caused friction between itself, and the 'negatively charged' electrons that filled the prison called 'OBLIVION'.

Very soon it was duplicating 'itself' so fast, and the music got faster and more frantic, causing even faster 'rapid expansion' of the now 'not so lonely' positively charged electrons, that all that pent-up 'imagery' was let loose and 'matter' was formed in what we now call 'The Cosmos'.

You Now Have 'MY VERSION' About The 'BIG BANG' That Created 'Creation' Itself.

(More Like Little Rub)

The Cosmos and all 'matter' is held together by...'Vibrations'... (FACT!)

The Cosmos 'sings' through infinity. With that one basic chord as the foundation and energy that binds all matter, no matter how small or insignificant.

(We have scientific instruments that 'prove' this).

All 'matter', vibrates. (Solid concrete, iron, gases, water, fire, etc, etc)
Everything is held together by frequencies of vibrations... FACT!

Music is probably the most powerful tool we have at our disposal. It can heal the sick. It can create action. It can stimulate 'imagination' itself.

IT IS ALSO THE MOST 'ABUSED' TOOL WE HAVE AT OUR DISPOSAL.

'The Few' know of it's power, and while they give us the 'sweetener' of unlimited access to as much music as we can possibly handle, they give us 'with' that sweetener, the power to destroy ourselves through drink, drugs and debauchery. All the things that many people now accept as 'normal' because we have been conditioned (mainly through the power of music and the 'media') to accept such behaviour as normal.

Yet when we honestly 'search' our conscience in the privacy of our own company. We KNOW we are acting in conflict with what is TRULY healthy, both for ourselves and society as a whole.

In the beginning, the 'negatively' charged electrons were in their 'heaven'.

That was their world. That was their existence and they were comfortable with 'nothing' in oblivion. So much so, that they began to FIGHT BACK, to try and get back to that state of oblivion.

'The Few' are the agents of that dark energy who are trying to return everything back to 'the status quo'.

We have the 'Black Army' fighting the 'White Army'.

If the 'Black Army' win (as they are doing) we destroy ourselves, the cosmos 'implodes' and a state of 'oblivion' is restored.

If the 'White Army' wins. Which it 'must' for the future of all we love and hold dear, then we will enter the next stage of human development, and the development of the Cosmos; 'UTOPIA'.

The 'White Army' uses the world of art and entertainment to educate us for the time being. Subliminal messages are passed to us through songs, poetry, plays and drama. Fantasy books and movies are used to prepare us for our unbelievable future.

Why are these avenues of education chosen?

Because the music industry perpetuates 'The Chord' that our cosmos requires to bind itself together. Film and theatre also use 'music' to help emphasise certain points and phrases throughout their stories. Poets deliver oblique truths disguised within their 'rhythms'. All songwriters are poets. All songs can be read independantly from the music as 'poetry'.

Take the most successful musical artists in the world and you will find what the Moody Blues called 'The Lost Chord' running through their music. They don't know what it is. We don't know what it is. But we DO know that when we hear it, we like it, and we want to hear more of it.

The chord runs through classical, pop, rock, jazz and every genre` of music you can imagine. It obviously doesn't run through ALL music. Which is why some musicians would never be successful.

When an artist sits down to write a song or a piece of music. He or she doesn't KNOW if they are writing a classic or not. They don't know what 'the lost chord' is, or how to include it. That part of the operation is taken care of by an energy we have no control over. An independent sub-conscious-active mind will choose to enter or leave the process as it sees fit.

The Beatles didn't sit down and say "we're going to write the definitive list of all time pop and rock classics". The Rolling Stones thought they were going to just 'shake up society'. (As they did). But read the words of every song ever written by both The Beatles and The Stones and you will read some profound statements running throughout. Rod Stewart and Bernie Taupin are two other 'poets' who have opened their souls to let us all stare inside.

Did they know at the time they were writing 'profound' statements?

Definitely NOT! They were writing down their thoughts as they entered their heads, and it's only when we read what they had written 'retrospectively', that we can now see how blind 'we' and 'they' really were at the time. Had we taken their messages seriously at the time, UTOPIA would now be our claim.

Learned professors are now studying these works, and their students are taking philosophy degrees based on them.

Elvis Presley never wrote 'any' of his own songs. But such was his charisma, and so 'positive' was his sub-conscious mind, that he was chosen as a conduit to relay some very important messages to us from 'The White Army'. It's why he achieved ultimately too much success. He produced such a wealth of 'positive energy' through everyone that heard him sing, and he, like all other successful artists, was rewarded with knowledge and wealth.

The writers of those songs would have us believe all sorts of 'nonsense' was written throughout, and I strongly believe that they 'do' believe that. They were writing whatever came into their heads. They just didn't realise that the words and music they were writing were NOT their own. Their minds were being entered by an 'independent sub-conscious-active mind' which was using them as 'another' conduit to educate us for our own good.

Successful people who help to produce the all important 'positive energy' that our 'White Army' requires, are always rewarded with knowledge, and more often than not, with wealth. It seems sinister, and when a similar process is used by 'The Black Army' (The Few), it is.

When you read, and re-read 'Visions Of The Future Past', the things I have just written in this chapter, that seem rather far-fetched and a little wierd, will suddenly become SO clear, you'll wonder how on earth you never saw it all long ago.

The Universal Knowledge Bank.

We All Have 'The Key' To Unlock This Immense
Bank Of Knowledge For The Good Of ALL,
And To Ally Ourselves With 'The White Army'.

So what is the 'Universal Knowledge Bank'?

It's where every idea and thought that we all have, throughout every moment of our lives, originates from.

Where Einstein got his theories from, and where every other physicist, scientist and inventor got their ideas and thoughts from.

It's like a VAST library that resides within the ether that we call 'nothing'.

ANTI-MATTER. The DNA of the Cosmos.

Put your hand out into the 'nothing' that's in-front of you and you are interacting with that 'Universal Knowledge Bank'. It's all there. All of the information that is needed for the safe maintenance of the Cosmos.

We as humans are 'privileged' to be trusted with access to it. But we are only allowed 'limited' access. We have to overcome tasks and problems that are laid before us before we can access the higher levels. The 'polarity' of our thoughts and mind-set determines just how much information we can draw out of the knowledge bank.

The more 'positive' our mind-set, the higher the level of information we can receive. 'The Collective Human Consciousness' has a combined polarity. It is made up of 'negatively charged' minds and 'positively charged' minds. When it reaches pre-determined levels of positivity, more advanced information is released to us.

Should the positive energy levels drop back, rewards of knowledge are turned against us. For example; We were given the knowledge to develop nuclear energy as a potentially free, perpetual source. We decided to use it in a negative way, which is now eating away at our world slowly.

To turn the tide, we will need to show that we are capable of producing vast swathes of 'positive' energy through the self-control of our own minds. Nuclear warheads will need to be dismantled to show our remorse as a race. This seems an impossible 'ask', but it 'will' be achieved.

(It has to be, or the White Army loses the war)

There is a FREE perpetual energy source that we can 'touch' right NOW!

It will benefit all of mankind. It will be given to us once our 'positive' polarity reaches that higher level.

We will be given disease-free lives in the future as our reward for generating more and more 'positive energy' through the power of our thoughts.

Which in turn will empower 'The White King' in his quest to keep 'The Black King' in 'check'.

CHESS....The Conclusion.

Did you think that 'CHESS' was developed as a 'game'?

Sorry, but it was developed so that the 'wise men' of the 'White Army' could work out strategies to predict and defeat the actions of the 'Black Army'.

War as we know it will become unnecessary and irrelevant because the 'positive' energy of the 'White Army' doesn't consider the 'taking of life' as acceptable in any way.

War will be fought with the power of 'WORDS' and 'THOUGHTS'.

When 'The Few' are defeated, their main weapon which is 'WAR' (in all of it's ghastly, gory forms. AKA; the living hell), will be defeated with them.

The dreams of John Lennon, Ghandi and Martin Luther King will become very much a reality. 'PEACE without WAR'.

But FIRST! We have to stand up and be counted.

This book is FREE!

You Are Asked To Pass It along.

There should be no way that any financial gain can be made from the re-distribution of this book by you. I would ask that you pass it on to as many people as you can. There is NOT much time before 'The Few' complete their agenda.

Ten years from now is being generous in the extreme.

When the time comes, and all around you is collapsing in a heap, with masses dying in yet another definitive world war. Will you have the courage to tell YOUR loved ones that you WERE WARNED, but you chose 'NOT to believe' or do anything about it?

This has nothing to do with any political or religious bias. It is 'independent' of everything, bar the well-being of the human race.

Search your soul. Research the evidence on the inter-net while you still can and you will 'prove' to yourself that THIS is the book of TRUTH.

It may be short, (as this is only the prelude). But who knows 'when' things will REALLY kick off? Better to get this prelude out into the public domain as it is, than to leave it until it's too late.

The NEXT part is called

'Visions Of The Future Past'

It was written in 1987. First published in 1988
by; P. Moring. FP Publishing (UK)

It is the manual, written in rhyme, that explains
the strategies of 'The Few'. (The Black Kings Army)

It also shows us HOW to counter those strategies by aligning ourselves with 'The White Kings Army'.

On first reading you will wonder what on earth it's all about.

It may seem naïve and even childish to the intellectuals among you.

But never underestimate the POWER of rhyme.

Rhyme creates a Rhythm.

Rhythm creates Music, and Music holds this Cosmos intact by transmitting the necessary 'vibrations' that hold the atoms together to form 'matter'.

Each time you read the book, you will be generating 'positive energy' in your mind. That 'positive energy' will increase with each reading and will be transmitted through the telepathic 'power' of your very own mind to others, and it will cause an unstoppable 'Ripple' effect.

In turn causing the 'Butterfly' effect that the most successful internet entrepreneurs of the 21st century use to great effect when they need to 'get the word out' about any product or idea.

The only way to defeat 'The Few'
is by overwhelming it with:

LOVE and 'POSITIVE ENERGY'.

Peace in our time - 2014
